FEBRUARY 2018

VULCAN EMPLOYEE
AWARDS 2017

Vulcan Refractories are proud of the involvement of our employees in health and Safety and in their efforts to strive to improve the Health and Safety in our company. Continuing our health and safety record and maintaining our Gold Award from ROSPA the Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents.

We are also proud of the involvement of our employees in improvements to our procedures and maintaining our high quality and production standards.

Each year we award the safety team with the highest achievement level, safety team of the year. We recognised the individual who has contributed most to safety and we award the person who has contributed the most to improvements for the company overall.

Employee of the year 2017 is Joe Hayes, our QA and QC technician. Joe has made huge strides since he joined Vulcan and this year achieved level 3 in Quality Management.

The 2017 team of the year was team 2.

Safety employee of the year 2017 is Dave Dale who made the greatest contribution to safety awareness. Dave has been with Vulcan 2 for years and works in our press shop.

Well done to all winners in 2017. Here's to another good year in 2018.
